

REVELATION 20-22 – GROUP GUIDE

November 30th, 2025

MESSAGE RECAP

Revelation doesn't end with a final war but with a final invitation: "Come." Jesus rides out not to win a battle but to display a victory already secured at the cross. The repeated "No Battle Motif" throughout Revelation shows the enemy gathers for battle but is instantly defeated every time—not because the fight is close, but because it's already over. Satan's final "release" is not a second chance but a public humiliation, like a defeated general in a Roman triumphal procession, displayed so the world can see he is conquered. Revelation then pulls the curtain back on the New Creation where God dwells with His people, wipes every tear, removes the curse, restores Eden, and invites the thirsty to come. The book ends with one question: Are you ready?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How are you...really?
2. Read Revelation 19:11–16
 - a. What stands out to you about the description of Jesus—His appearance, His names, His authority?
 - b. How does this change how you think about spiritual battles in your life?
3. Read Revelation 19:19–21 & 20:7–10
 - a. What patterns do you notice in these "gather for battle but no battle happens" scenes?
 - b. What does it reveal about Satan's true power compared to Christ?
4. Where are you tempted to live for victory instead of from victory?
5. Where do you sense the enemy tries to create confusion or make the battle feel undecided in your life?
6. Read Revelation 21:1–7 & Revelation 22:17–20
 - a. Which of these promises speaks most deeply to you?
 - b. How have you personally responded to Jesus' invitation to "Come"?

PRAY
